Randolph-Macon to Meet Boat Club Eleven at West End Park.

BUCKNELL VS. UNIVERSITY

The Game in Norfolk Saturday Will Be Attended By Many Richmonders.

Randolph-Macon College foot-ball team Randolph-Macon College foot-ball team-will meet the strong eleven from the Vir-ginia Boat Club of Richmond at Broad Street Park this afternoon. The game promises to be fast enough for the most enthusiastic lover of foot-ball. The team from the Virginia Club is composed of some of the best amateur athletes of Richmond and suburbs. Gruner, the star first baseman for the champion Brownies base-ball nine, will be full back on the "Indians," as they are known in the city.

Randolph-Macon College will have its regular eleven—the eleven that went through the Richmond College line with case and took the game that was played here a few days ago.

Bucknell vs. Virginia.

Bucknell vs. Virginia.

The Bucknell University foot-ball team, scheduled to play Virginia at Lafayatte Field, Norfolk, October 21st, is a speedy bunch. The line averages 180 pounds, and the backs, while somewhat lighter are very fast. The team is run by Frank, the quarter back, who gets the playe off with such quickness that the opposing team, no matter how heavy, is nearly taken off its feet. Lenhart, who does the kicking, is a big fellow and get most of bis kicking points from Mathewson. The latter was a college student at Bucknell when Lenhart was in the public schools at Lewisburg. Since Matheson's day, Bucknell has turned out a number of great kickers, all of whom learned the essential points of punting from the famous ball-tosser.

The Bucknell team is captained by Charles David Cooper, a line man. He is a 198-pounder, and is a mighty power on the line, Before coining to Bucknell, he attended Lafayette, where he played football one senson as, a substitute. Other big men in the Richmond team are O'Brien, Shade and Tolbert, all of whom are new men this year, but who have had considerable experience in football on preparatory and high school teams, Ballewin is another big fellow. This is his second year on the team and he is a ground-gainer hard to beat. He comes from one of the crack normal schools in Pennsylvania, where he had a fine football record. On the whole, the Bucknell foot-ball team puts up a great article of football and those who will take in the gaine with Virginia will not leave Lafayette Field disappointed.

LEAVES THE TURF. Mrs. J. B. M. Grosvenor to Give Up Her-Fine Horses.

Mrs. J. B. M. Grosvenor to Give

Up Her-Fine Horses,

NEY YORK, October 17.—Mrs. J. B. M. Grosvenor is to give up her magnificent stable of show horses and has canceled all of her engagements to exhibit at horse shows, a number of the managers of whom have counted on having representatives from this spiendid stable to augment the attractions of their exhibits.

The stable contains, perhaps, more prize winners, high steppers and saddle horses than any other string in the country.

The recent death of Mf. Grosvenor has led the widow to adopt the course sho has and on Thursday of this week all of the blooded animals will be disposed of at special sale at a prominent horse exchange in this city.

Mrs. Grosvenor has for three years been enthuslastic ever the subject of finely bred horseflesh and has paid out a fortune for those she now owns. One of her notable purchases was made at the Durland Horse Show last year, when she offered $5,000 for Rosebery on sight and obtained the coming champion.

When Petroleum was beaten by Corinne at the Bayshore show, a year or two ago, she promptly paid a long price for the victor and afterward saw the two horses win the championship and reserve championship in one class at several shows. After E. D. Jordan's hackneys. The President and The Baron, defeated one of her crack carriage pairs at Atlantic City last summer Mrs. Grosvenor made an offer, reported to be $20,000, for the winners and added them to her string.

To transport her stable to the recent Louisville Horse Show five cars were required to accommodate all the horses, carriages and paraphernalis. Not all her horses and paraphernalis. Not all her horses were shipped, as she had one four-in-hand team, recently purchased at a cost of something like $50,000, it is said, which she was saving to exhibit for the first time at the National Horse Show in contract and the National Horse Show in the other string.

light Confederate festival.

by thousand visitors expected during the big Confederate festival.

Handsome decorations have been completed on many building in the business section of the city, the National Bank being the first to array liself, and a beautiful arch, erected by A. P. Hill Camp near its hall on Tabb Street, is ready for its flags and streamers. Such a large amount of such work is to be done that a force of men was employed on the arch until late last night.

Extensive preparations are being made at Centre Warehouse for the big reunion balls to be given by the local camp of the Sons of Velerans in honor of the sponsors and maids of honor. A floor is being laid, which will provide nearly eleven thousand square feet of dancing space, to be illumined by myriads of incandescent lights, amid a waving harmony of Confederate colors in every form of bunner and bunting, draping the ceiling, walls and columns of the big building, in the centre of which the orchestra will play in a cluster of paims.

The Entertainment Committee of the Sons of Veterans, under the chairmaniship of Robert A. Martin, is doing everything to make the balls the greatest entertainments of the three-day celebration.

had been paid in, and the dividends received by the policyholders. Asked what he had to say to these. Mr. McCurdy said: "Figures don't lie, but liars en figure." He then hastily explained that he would be glad to verify the figures. The only explanation for a specific instance of a reduction of dividends Mr. McCurdy gave was that he supposed the policyholder had reduced rate policy.

The legal expanses were again referred to, and a number of vouchers for the payment of various sums were read. It was brought out that Wm. Barnes, Sr., of Albany, had appeared before the committee in Albany, last winter, and had received $1.000 from the New York Life Insurance Company, and the same amount from the Mutual Life Insurance Company. Later it was brought out in a letter to Mr. McCurdy from Wm. Barnes, Jr., that Mr. Barnes, Sr., was under an annual relainer to the Mutual Life Insurance Company.

Why Bowles Has Paid.

A voucher in 1802 for $10,000, payable to the T. H. Bowles, who explained by Mr. McCurdy as part payment in settlement of a suit Mr. Bowles, formerly the general agent, in Milwaukee, had brought against the company. It was testified to garlier in the month that Mr. Bowles had been dismissed by the company for incarlier in the month that Mr. Bowles had been dismissed by the company for insubordination. Mr. McCurdy said to-day that the insubordination consisted in 'throwing mud' and trying to injure the company. He'said that when it came Mr. Bowles' turn to have his business taken over by the company under the policy of the company to assume all general agencies, Mr. Bowles wrote a letter to the president, which the president termed 'insubordination.' This letter made a number of charges and submitted a number of cocords and tables. Later Mr. Bowles agitated a policyholder's crusade against the company, and Mr. McCurdy said the suit was settled to end the agitation, adding that Bowles went with the

The entire testimony of the day was continual thrust and parry between counsel and the witness, and when ad-journment was taken for the day, Mr. Hughes had not finished with Mr. Mc-Curdy, The latter will be recalled to-morrow.

Merely a "Retainer."

Merely a "Retainer."

At the afternoon session Mr. McCurdy was questioned concerning a payment of $5,000 to William A. Fricke, a former insurance commissioner of Wisconsin, Mr. McCurdy testified that this payment was made after the receipt of a letter from Charlton T. Lewis saying that Mr. Fricke would accept a retainer "to see that the interests of the Mutual Life should come to no harm" in that State. Mr. McCurdy authorized the payment of the money.

It developed that the Mutual Life Insurance Company paid house rent at Albany for A. C. Fields, an employe of the company during the legislative session. Mr. McCurdy testified that Fields was in Albany on legislative matters. Mr. McCurdy said he did not know Andrew Humilton, of Albany, and was surprised to learn that the Mutual Life Insurance Company had paid money to Hamilton.

When Mr. McCurdy was asked what Mr. Fields was doing in Albany he said. "He was looking after legislation. If legislation was not watched the insurance companies would be legislated and superintended out of business in five years, It is the duty of insurance companies to watch legislation in all the States."
